World Renowned Dancer to Teach Master Classes at Local Ballet School

EDMOND, OKLAHOMA—Alfonso Martin, Principal Dancer with Tulsa Ballet, will be traveling to Edmond to teach a series of master classes. The classes will take place on Sunday, May 2, at Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts.

“I am so honored that Alfonso has agreed to teach at my school once again. He is such an amazing artist and performer. I know it will be encouraging and inspiring for my students to take his classes,” said Lisa Webb, Director/Teacher/Owner of ABTA.

Martin joined Tulsa Ballet in 1998 as a Demi-Soloist and was promoted to Principal in April 2001. His performance experience also includes stints with Boston Ballet and Ballet de Monterey. Martin has been featured in works by legendary choreographers such as Nacho Duato, Val Caniparoli, and George Balanchine. He has also recently appeared in Dance Magazine, Pointe Magazine, and The New York Times.

The master class for Beginning Level students will be from 1:30 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. and cost $20. The class for Low Intermediate Level students will be from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. and cost $25. The class for Intermediate and Advanced students will be from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. and cost $30. Those students wishing to attend must reserve their place and pay by April 24.

To reserve a place or for more information please call (405) 752-1422 or visit www.abtaonline.org.
