Local Young Dancer Accepted to Prestigious NYC Program

EDMOND, OKLAHOMA—Kathrine Lambert, 11, has been accepted by audition to attend American Ballet Theatre’s Young Dancer Summer Workshop in New York City, NY. Lambert is a student at Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts in Edmond, and will be attending the program in August of 2010.

“I am so incredibly proud of Kathrine. She is a very dedicated student, and her hard work has obviously paid off,” said Lisa Webb, Owner/Teacher/Director of Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts. “It is such a joy to see my students achieve their dreams and goals.”

The Young Dancer Summer Workshop is for students who are nine to 11 years of age. Under the direction of Franco De Vita, those accepted to attend will focus on building a solid foundation of dance technique, while participating in classes several hours per day, according to www.abt.org.

Kathrine is in the sixth grade at Cheyenne Middle School, and is the daughter of Mark and Julie Lambert of Edmond. Lambert is in Division Four at Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts. Emily Fry of Stillwater, who is also a student at Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts, was accepted to and attended the Young Dancer Summer Workshop in the summer of 2009.
