Instructor from Tulsa Ballet School to Teach Master Classes in Edmond

EDMOND, OKLAHOMA—Stephanie Murrish, a member of the faculty at the Tulsa Ballet Center for Dance Education, will be traveling to Edmond to teach master classes in Ballet Technique on Sunday, Nov. 14. The classes will take place at Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts.

“It is such an honor to have Stephanie teach at my school,” said Lisa Webb, owner/director/teacher at Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts. “She has done a wonderful job at the Tulsa Ballet School, and I am eager for my students to experience her instruction, as well.”

Raised in New Orleans, Murrish studied privately with Maestro Vincenzo, who was the last student of the legendary Maestro Cecchetti. She was a soloist with the Cincinnati Ballet, as well as a principal ballerina with the Charleston Ballet Theatre, Ballet de Santiago in Chile, and the Sarasota Ballet of Florida where Pavel Fomin coached her for eleven years. Most recently, she and her husband were teachers at the 2010 USA International Ballet Competition International Dance School in Jackson, Miss.

The Beginning Technique class will be from 1:30 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. and cost $20. The Low Intermediate Technique class will be from 2:15 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. and cost $25. The Intermediate/Advanced Technique class will be from 3:15 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. and cost $30.

There is a Family Discount of $5 available for those who have more than one family member participating in these classes.

To reserve a place please call (405) 752-1422. For more information on Academy of Ballet and Theatre Arts visit www.abtaonline.org.
